

Bring it Home, Kalispell

With our location in northwest Montana, Kalispell is the soul of the Flathead Valley. And as residents of this mountain town, we love sharing this place with groups of all kinds and sizes, from corporate retreats to meetings and conventions.

We also know that you, our sweet Kalispell friends, are some of our best advocates. After all, the economic impact that meetings and events have in our city is astounding as out-of-town visitors spend money in local businesses, including lodging, restaurants, retail shops and more.

The bottom line:

Group business is a vital part of the Kalispell community, as it helps sustain small businesses and creates jobs.

Here's how our Bring it Home referral program works:

recommend a potential piece of group business, along with a contact name, and we'll give you a $10 gift card from a Kalispell business. Plus, we'll follow up on and explore every lead you share with us.
